

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES

SUBORDINATE LEGISLATION

2006 No.

EDUCATION, WALES

The Teacher Training Incentive Scheme 2006

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The National Assembly for Wales has powers to provide financial assistance under sections 14-17 of the Education Act 2002 for the promotion of the recruitment or retention of teachers or non-teaching staff. This Teacher Training Incentive Scheme (“the Scheme”) is made in the exercise of those powers.

The Scheme makes provision for the Assembly to pay grants by way of incentives for eligible persons to undergo a postgraduate teacher training course and by way of incentives for eligible persons to take up particular teaching posts for given minimum periods of time.

Separate guidance is issued by the Welsh Assembly Government, and those exercising any function under the Scheme must have regard to that guidance.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES

SUBORDINATE
LEGISLATION

2006 No.

EDUCATION, WALES

THE TEACHER TRAINING
INCENTIVE SCHEME

2006

Made . 2006

Coming into force . 2006

The National Assembly for Wales, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by sections 14,15, 16 and 17 of the Education Act 2002, makes the following Scheme:

Title, commencement and application

1-(1) The title of this Scheme is the Teacher Training Incentive Scheme 2006.

(2) This Scheme comes into force on 21 September 2006 and applies in relation to Wales.

Interpretation

2 Except where the context otherwise requires, for the purpose of this Scheme –

“Welsh Assembly Government” (“Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru”) means the executive arm of the National Assembly for Wales, which comprises members of the Assembly Cabinet and staff working to them, by whom functions of the National Assembly for Wales are exercisable

“accredited institution”("sefydliad achrededig") means an institution accredited by the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales as a provider of courses satisfying such provisions as to curricula and other criteria as may be specified from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales

“maintained school” (“ysgol a gynhelir”) means a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school within the meaning of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998

“postgraduate teacher training course” (“cwrs hyfforddi athrawon ôl-raddedig”) means a full-time, part-time or flexible postgraduate course of initial training for teachers which is provided at an accredited institution in Wales and which leads to a person who completes it successfully becoming a qualified teacher. In this context “flexible” indicates that the length and pattern of the course was determined by reference to the student’s experience and training requirements

“qualified teacher” (“athro cymwysedig neu athrawes gymwysedig”) has the meaning given to it by section 132(1) of the Education Act 2002: that is to say “a person who satisfies requirements specified in regulations” (the Regulations currently in force being the Education (School Teachers’ Qualifications) (Wales) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/1729).

TEACHER TRAINING INCENTIVE SCHEME 2006

Incentive grants

3 The Welsh Assembly Government may pay grants under this paragraph (“training grants”) by way of incentives to persons who satisfy the requirements of paragraph 6 and those of either paragraph 7 or paragraph 8 to undergo a postgraduate teacher training course.

4 The Welsh Assembly Government may pay grants under this paragraph (“teaching grants”) by way of incentives to persons who satisfy the requirements of paragraph 11 and those of either paragraph 9 or paragraph 10 to take up particular teaching posts for given minimum periods of time.

5 Grants made available under this Scheme are subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 15-21.

Eligibility for training grants

6 To be eligible for a training grant, a person must:-

- (a) be undertaking training on a postgraduate teacher training course;
- (b) meet the requirements for “eligible students” under the regulations made under section 22 of the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 currently in force as they apply to that course;
- (c) not be employed to teach at any school or other education institution in a capacity other than as a qualified teacher;
- (d) not be a participant in training organised under an Employment Based Teacher Training Scheme made under Regulation 8 of the Education (School Teachers’ Qualifications) (Wales) Regulations 2004; and
- (e) not be undertaking a further education course of any kind.

7 To be eligible for a training grant of up to £7,200, a person must be undertaking training on a postgraduate teacher training course which commenced after 1st September 2006, studying mathematics, science subjects, modern languages, design and technology, ICT, English (including drama), Welsh, music or religious education at secondary level.

8 To be eligible for a training grant of up to £4,200, a person must be undertaking training on a postgraduate teacher training course which commenced after 1st September 2006, other than studying mathematics, science subjects, modern languages, design and technology, ICT, English (including drama), Welsh, music or religious education at secondary level.

Eligibility for teaching grants

9 To be eligible for a teaching grant of up to £5,000, a person must have trained on a postgraduate teacher training course which commenced after 1st September 2006, studying mathematics or science subjects at secondary level as their only or main subject, and must meet the criteria set out in paragraph 11.

10 To be eligible for a teaching grant of up to £2,500, a person must have trained on a postgraduate teacher training course which commenced after 1st September 2006, studying any of the following subjects at secondary level as their only or main subject:-

- (a) any modern language;
- (b) technology (including information technology, design and technology)
- (c) English (including drama);
- (d) Welsh;
- (e) music
- (f) religious education

and must meet the criteria set out in paragraph 11.

11 If a person meets the eligibility criteria described in paragraphs 9 or 10, in order to be eligible for a teaching grant a person must have:-

- (a) received a training grant, or received the full amount of any instalments of grant payable in respect of the period when he or she was undergoing the postgraduate teacher training course under any arrangements applying in England which the Welsh Assembly Government is satisfied correspond to those made in respect of training grants in pursuance of this Scheme; and
- (b) successfully completed the postgraduate teacher training course; and
- (c) successfully completed any Induction period in Wales or England required under regulations made under the Education Act 2002 which are in force at the time; and
- (d) within 12 months of successfully completing their Induction period, secured employment in and started teaching in a relevant post.

12 For the purposes of paragraph 11, a “relevant post” is:-

- (a) a post in a maintained secondary school or a non-maintained special school in Wales; and is
- (b) a permanent post or one on a single fixed term contract with the school or local education authority of at least four months’ duration, full or part-time; and is
- (c) one where the teacher is contracted to teach, as a minimum, more than 50% of their teaching time in a subject in which the teacher successfully completed the postgraduate teacher training course and received a training grant.

13 The 12 month period in paragraph 11(d) will be varied in the following circumstances:-

- (a) if a person does not work because of pregnancy the 12 month period between successfully completing the induction period and taking up a relevant post will be extended to two years;
- (b) if a person is certified by a doctor as medically unfit to work as a teacher, the 12 month period between successfully completing the induction period and taking up a relevant post will be extended for the period during which they are so certified;
- (c) if someone is caring for a dependent on a full-time basis, the 12 month period between successfully completing the induction period and taking up a relevant post will be extended to two years.

14 In paragraphs 9-12, “postgraduate teacher training course” means a full-time, part-time or flexible postgraduate course of initial training for teachers which is provided at an accredited institution in Wales or England and which leads to a person who completes it successfully becoming a qualified teacher. In this paragraph “flexible” indicates that the length and pattern of the course was determined by reference to the student’s experience and training requirements.

Conditions

15 No grant will be paid under paragraphs 3 and 4 to a person unless he or she has made an application to the Welsh Assembly Government in such form, at such time and containing such particulars as the Welsh Assembly Government may determine.

16 The Welsh Assembly Government may at its discretion not pay a grant under paragraph 3 to students accepted onto a postgraduate teacher training course after the intake target for that course, as notified by the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales, has been reached.

17 A person who is eligible for a training grant and joins a postgraduate teacher training course which is already underway or leaves a course before its completion will only be entitled to an amount of grant proportionate to the time in periods of whole months that he or she is on the training course.

18 A person who is otherwise eligible to receive a training grant and has also received a training grant of any amount prior to 1st September 2006, or received any amount of any grant payable in respect of a period when he or she was undergoing a postgraduate teacher training course under any arrangements applying in England which the Welsh Assembly Government is satisfied correspond to those made in respect of training grants in pursuance of this Scheme, will only be entitled to a training grant which is reduced by the number of previous instalments received. Training grants for students resuming a course or starting a course where entry has been deferred will be paid at the training grant rate which applies in the academic year a student joins/rejoins their training course, unless the Welsh Assembly Government agrees otherwise in writing.

19 In paragraph 18, “postgraduate teacher training course” means a full-time part-time or flexible postgraduate course of initial training for teachers which is provided at an accredited institution in England and which leads to a person who completes it successfully becoming a qualified teacher. In this paragraph “flexible” indicates that the length and pattern of the course was determined by reference to the student’s experience and training requirements.

20 A person who is otherwise eligible to receive a training grant and has also received a grant of any amount under The Education (Mathematics and Science Teacher Training Incentive) (Wales) Regulations 1999 or any equivalent regulations applying at the time in England will be entitled to a training grant but the amount will be reduced by the amount of any previous grant received under those regulations.

21 The Welsh Assembly Government may require any grant paid in pursuance of paragraphs 3 and 4 to be repaid in whole or in part if:-

- (a) after receiving any instalment of grant, the recipient fails to meet any eligibility criteria adopted by the Welsh Assembly

Government in relation to a subsequent instalment; or

- (b) the recipient has provided in, or in connection with, his or her application for grant information which is false or materially misleading
- (c) there was firm evidence that the recipient had never intended to complete the course or, having completed it, to enter teaching.

Payment of grant

24 Grants under paragraphs 3 and 4 may be paid in a lump sum or in such instalments and at such times as the Welsh Assembly Government may determine, and the Welsh Assembly Government may in particular determine that instalments may be payable on dates which are after the person has taken up a teaching post as a qualified teacher.

25 In the case of any grant payable under paragraph 3 while a person is undergoing a postgraduate teacher training course, the Welsh Assembly Government may provide funds to an accredited institution for payment to that person at such times as it may direct.

Administration

26 The Welsh Assembly Government may provide accredited institutions which receive funds under paragraph 25 with a grant of up to 2% of the total amount of funds received in recognition of the administrative and related costs related to making payments under that paragraph.

Signed on behalf of the National Assembly for Wales

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:

Date: