Proposed Legislative Competence Orders

Presiding Officer's Determination on Proper Form

The Presiding Officer has determined, under Standing Order 22.15, that the proper form for proposed Orders is as follows:

1. The text of a proposed Order must be set out in numbered articles.
2. A brief heading must be used to describe either an individual article or group of articles.
3. Article headings must appear in bold directly above the text of the article or group of articles to which the heading relates.
4. Articles may be divided into numbered paragraphs and sub-paragraphs identified using the English alphabet.
5. Proposed Orders must include provision for a title by which the Order is to be known.
6. The text of a proposed Order should be printed in Times New Roman font.
7. An Explanatory Note may be included after the text of the proposed Order.
