Dear Mr Morgan,

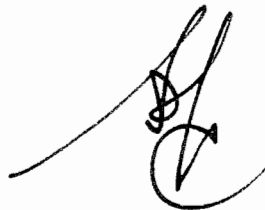

As a pair of 77yr olds watching the value of our hard earned savings reduced in the present climate I write, with some rightful rancour at the disclosure of Assembly Members expenses.

Not only do these so-called representatives receive more than adequate public money salaries but have the effrontery to claim for such things as I Pod players, Television sets, Electric Irons and many other unnecessary frivolous items. For us folk some of these are luxury goods only available after saving

Once again, the perception of the Assembly is that it permits these profligates to behave without being accountable. It is my humble view that these characters are so insensitive and aberrant they are close to appearing as completely without conscience.

It is my hope that you, as First Minister will take a public stand against these people who have no regard for us.

Yours Sincerely
