EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Conservation (Natural Habitats, &c.) Regulations 1994 (“the 1994 Regulations”), which make provision implementing Council Directive 92/43/EEC on the

- (a) S.I. 1994/2716. Relevant amendments have been made by S.I. 2007/1843 and 1996/525. The 1994 Regulations make provision for the purpose of implementing, for Great Britain, Council Directive 92/43/EEC on the conservation of natural habitats and of wild flora and fauna (O.J. No. L206, 22.07.92, p.7) as last amended by Council Directive 2006/105/EC of 20 November 2006 adapting Directives 79/409/EEC, 92/43/EEC, 97/68/EC, 2001/80/EC and 2001/81/EC in the field of environment, by reason of the accession of Bulgaria and Romania (O.J. No. L363, 20.12.06, p.368; and see O.J. L80, 21.3.07, p.15 for the Corrigendum amending the original title). In relation to Wales, the functions of the Secretary of State under the 1994 Regulations were transferred to the National Assembly for Wales (with the exception of those under regulations 71 to 78) by article 2 of, and Schedule 1 to, the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672). By virtue of paragraph 30 of Schedule 11 to the Government of Wales Act 2006, the relevant functions were transferred from the National Assembly for Wales to the Welsh Ministers.
- (b) Regulation 39 was substituted in relation to England and Wales by S.I. 2007/1843, regulation 5(1) and (13).
- (c) Schedule 5 has been amended in relation to England and Wales by S.I. 1988/288, 1989/906, 1991/367, 1992/2350, 1998/878, 2007/1843 and 2008/431.
- (d) 1981 c. 69. Section 9(4) was substituted by S.I. 2007/1843, regulation 7(4), having been previously amended by paragraph 5(a) of Schedule 12 to the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 (c. 37).

conservation of natural habitats and of wild flora and fauna (O.J. No. L206, 22.07.92, p.7). These Regulations extend to England and Wales only.

Regulation 2 to these Regulations adds three new species to the list of European protected species in Schedule 2 to the 1994 Regulations. The three new species are the pool frog (Rana lessonae), the Fisher's estuarine moth (Gortyna borelii lunata) and the lesser whirlpool ram's-horn snail (Anisus vorticulus).

Regulations 3 and 4 make consequential amendments to regulation 39(6) of the 1994 Regulations and Schedule 5 to the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1982 (c. 69) ("the 1981 Act") respectively.

Since the Fisher's estuarine moth is now a European protected species, by virtue of the Act concerning the conditions of accession of the Czech Republic, the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Hungary, the Republic of Malta, the Republic of Poland, the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovak Republic and the adjustments to the Treaties on which the European Union is founded (O.J. No. L236, 29.09.03, p.33 (see p.676)), the defence in regulation 39(6) of the 1994 Regulations will apply in relation to the moth without need of any specific mention of it.

The amendment to Schedule 5 to the 1981 Act means that the Fisher's estuarine moth no longer receives the protection afforded under section 9(1), (2) or (4)(a) of the 1981 Act. Section 9(1) and (2) of the 1981 Act prohibits the killing, injuring and taking and the possession or control of animals listed in Schedule 5 to the Act and section 9(4)(a) protects their places of shelter and protection. Instead, the Fisher's estuarine moth is protected under the corresponding provisions of regulation 39 of the 1994 Regulations.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.

A transposition note setting out how these amendments transpose the provisions of the Habitats Directive has been prepared. Copies of the transposition note may be obtained, free of charge, from Wildlife Species Conservation Division, Defra, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN. In addition, copies of the transposition note have been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament.
