2 February 2010

1. Description

This instrument amends the Travel Concessions (Eligible Services) Order 2010 so as to refer to sections 3,4 and 6 of the Learner Travel (Wales) Measure instead of section 509 of the Education Act 1996 which has been repealed in Wales.

2. Matters of special interest to the Subordinate Legislation Committee

There is no matter of special interest to in the Instrument.

3. Legislative background

The Regulations are made under section 94(4) of the Transport Act 1985 and section 146 of the Transport Act 2000 and are subject to the negative resolution procedure.

4. Purpose & intended effect of the legislation

The Order amends the Travel Concessions (Eligible Services) Order 2002. The Travel Concessions (Eligible Services) Order 2002 sets out what is an eligible service to participate in mandatory travel concession schemes. An eligible bus service includes, in specified circumstances, a service provided or secured by a local authority for the purpose of learner travel. Section 509 of the Education Act 1996 placed an obligation on local education authorities in Wales to make arrangements for the provision of transport to facilitate the attendance of persons receiving education at schools and certain other institutions. Section 509 of the Act was replaced for Wales by the Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008. This Order amends the Travel Concessions (Eligible Services) Order 2002 so as to refer to the Measure instead of section Education Act.

5. Consultation

As these changes are administrative no consultation has been undertaken on these amendments.

6. Regulatory Impact Assessment (RIA)

A Regulatory Impact Assessment is not required for the regulations as it does not improve cost or savings on the public, private or charity and voluntary sectors.
